Milan is the city of fashion, business and design. It is also a place full of hidden treasures awaiting to be discovered. This itinerary in 10 steps will lead you to places telling stories and unveiling secrets. Whether you are a citizen or a new comer on a tight schedule, you can experience an authentic touch of this fantastic city.

Teatro alla Scala/Museo Teatrale alla Scala
Corso Magenta, 65. M1-M2 Cadorna FN

Founded by Francesco Sforza in the middle of the 16th century, Teatro alla Scala is an early Christian church that was totally rebuilt during the 18th century. Its magnificent rooms of the 18th century palazzo house the most famous opera house in Italy. The museums contain masterpieces by famed artists.

Ambrosiana Art Gallery and Library
Piazza Leonardo da Vinci. M1 Piola

In addition to the exclusive tasting location on the seventh floor, you can admire a vast collection of design works by Rinascente.

Palazzo Mezzanotte
Piazza del Giardino delle Fontane 1. M2-M5 Porta Garibaldi FS

Palazzo Mezzanotte is the headquarter of Milano Stock Exchange. It is an architectural complex recently transformed into a luxury shopping area. A series of factory buildings in via Savona-Tortona houses the Garibaldi station with a scenic square and an innovative garlic-shaped bike parking.

Triennale di Milano
Viale Manzoni 16. M1-M2 Cadorna FN

Triennale di Milano is one of the major modern art districts known for its celebration of design and architecture. The magnificent rooms of the 18th century palazzo house a vast collection of musical instruments and documents. www.triennale.it

Fondazione Prada
Piazza Paola, 3. M1-M2 Duomo, M1 Corso Sempione

Fondazione Prada is a non profit foundation dedicated to the research and promotion of the contemporary art and culture. Strongly inspired by the idea of Jean Nouvel, the Fondazione Prada is a wonderful example of Romanesque style.

Teatro alla Scala Puccini
Piazza Pio XI, 2. M1-M3 Duomo, M1 Cordusio

Teatro alla Scala Puccini is an architectural complex recently transformed into an upscale shopping center of luxury boutiques and cafés. In the diagonal opposite side will hear you. colomn on the corner, if you wisper, the person standing on the 3d floor will hear you.

Colonne di San Lorenzo
Corso di Porta Ticinese 39. There were outside the roman walls from in via Gabba, next to Bulgari Hotel.

Orto Botanico di Brera
Via Serbelloni 10, there is a mad doorbell: a bronze ear, sculpture by Adolfo Wildt (1868-1913).

Darsena
Piazza Leonardo da Vinci. M1 Piola

Don't miss the new basin of the Darsena. An architectural complex recently transformed into a luxury shopping area. A series of factory buildings in via Savona-Tortona houses the Garibaldi station with a scenic square and an innovative garlic-shaped bike parking.

Amelie Ballroom
Via Brera and surrounding areas. M1 Lanza

An elegant four-storey arcade housing luxury cafés and restaurants. It is also an ideal place for a coffee break with the view of the green Bertolli gardens, one of the most beautiful in Milan.

Biblioteca di Brera
In piazza Missori there are roman remains of a paleochristian basilica: Colonne di San Lorenzo, probably part of a temple. In front of Basilica of S.Lawrence there is a rare remind of roman aqueduct. In the street there is a rare roman water fountain.

Orto Botanico di Brera
Via Serbelloni 10, there is a mad doorbell: a bronze ear, sculpture by Adolfo Wildt (1868-1913). In piazza Missori there are roman remains of a paleochristian basilica: Colonne di San Lorenzo, probably part of a temple. In front of Basilica of S.Lawrence there is a rare remind of roman aqueduct. In the street there is a rare roman water fountain.

San Siro Stadium
San Siro Stadium is the most famous stadium in the world. It is the home ground of Milan AC and Inter. To book: san.siro@fci.it or phone 0348 412 222.

The Musum
A museum boasting a vast collection of musical instruments and documents. www.triennale.it

THE LIBERTY STATUE ON THE DUOMO FACADE
In the shadow of the Duomo there is a rare metallic statue that was produced by the French sculptor E.B. Bartholdi. The statue represents Liberty Enlightening the World. In the shadow of the Duomo there is a rare metallic statue that was produced by the French sculptor E.B. Bartholdi. The statue represents Liberty Enlightening the World.

Teatro Romano
To book: teatroromano@mi.camcom.it or phone 02 7413790.

Palazzo Mezzanotte
Palazzo Mezzanotte is the headquarter of the Milano Stock Exchange. It is an architectural complex recently transformed into an upscale shopping center of luxury boutiques and cafés. In the diagonal opposite side will hear you. colomn on the corner, if you wisper, the person standing on the 3d floor will hear you.

Central Station
Don't miss the Highline Galleria, an exclusive panoramic view of Milano, just two steps from the central station. The magnificent rooms of the 18th century palazzo house the most famous opera house in Italy. The museums contain masterpieces by famed artists.

La Rinascente Food Hall
www.rinascente.it/foodandrestaurants

In addition to the exclusive tasting location on the seventh floor, you can admire a vast collection of design works by Rinascente.

UNESCO World Heritage Sites
www.unesco.org

This itinerary in 10 steps will lead you to places telling stories and unveiling secrets. Whether you are a citizen or a new comer on a tight schedule, you can experience an authentic touch of this fantastic city.